IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF MISSOURI
WESTERN DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, Plaintiff, v. ISSE AWEIS MOHAMUD, Defendant.	Case No. 17-MJ-00081-JTM

MOTION OF THE UNITED STATES FOR CONTINUANCE OF A DETENTION HEARING

The Government respectfully moves for a continuance of the detention hearing as provided by 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f).

Section 3142(f) provides that the appropriate judicial officer shall hold a hearing to determine whether any condition or combination of conditions set forth in Section 3142(c) will reasonably assure the appearance of a defendant as required and the safety of any other person and the community when the attorney for the government moves for a detention hearing provided by said subsection, or upon the appropriate judicial officer's own motion, also as provided by Section 3142(f).

Section 3142(f) provides: "The hearing shall be held immediately upon the person's first appearance before the judicial officer unless that person, or the attorney for the government seeks a continuance. Except for good cause, a continuance on motion of the person may not exceed five days, and a continuance on motion of the attorney for the government may not exceed three days. During a continuance, the person shall be detained . . . ."

The Government seeks the continuance to facilitate the acquisition of additional information regarding the defendant, to evaluate the said information, and to prepare for the hearing.

Respectfully,

Thomas M. Larson
Acting United States Attorney
